

CENTRE FOR HUMAN GENETICS BENGALURU

Ref: CHG/Advt/2023-24/002

Dated: 03.11.2023

REQUIRED

Project assistants in genetic counselling at the Centre for Human Genetics.

(Number of posts available: 2)

Centre for Human Genetics (CHG) is an autonomous nationally recognized centre providing education, training and services in genetic medicine. It also has comprehensive basic research and diagnostic laboratories in human genetic disorders. CHG along with Indira Gandhi Institute of Child Health has been designated as one of the first eight centres of excellence for rare diseases by Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Govt. of India

Training: Pedigree drawing, family and medical history, genetic counselling, genetic diagnostics and interpretation of results, sample collection and handling, prenatal diagnosis and counselling, metabolic diets and management of inborn metabolic disorders, consent and record keeping will be part of the training and responsibilities of suitable candidate. Candidates with academic interests will be preferred and encouraged to present seminars, posters and attend academic meetings related to the subject.

Qualifications:

- MSc in Genetic Counselling, Lifesciences, Medical Biochemistry or Genetics
- Fresh graduates are encouraged to apply

Minimum period of commitment: 2 years

Training stipend: as per institute norms.

Hostel accommodation on campus may be available to out-station candidates.

Last date for application: 30th November 2023.

Suitable candidates will be invited for interviews tentatively scheduled during 2nd week of December.

Any change in the dates shall be informed to the candidates.